♦ EDITORIAL

“As I read the draft of this newsletter I paused to reflect on the amazing progress that Global FM has been made over the last few years.

What began as a vision is now a reality of enabling facility management professionals to connect all across the globe. We are welcoming new members, MEFMA , improving our Awards of Excellence in FM program, continuing to see more and more enthusiasm for World FM Day and adding collaboration, EuroFM, which all makes us stronger each day.

The Ambassador program will begin in earnest next quarter which will allow for an even better alignment of mature existing, emerging or visionary associations. This will enable us to share and prosper even more from a collaborative platform thus fulfilling our mission of elevating the profession and those who choose to make it their livelihood.

I will not spend time to review each and every accomplishment as this is well done within the body of this newsletter. I will only ask that you thoughtfully read each area of interest and ask yourself what you might do to assist in this quest.

It takes all of us working together to make the dream a reality. Thank you, to all of you who already contribute to make Global FM successful!”

Best wishes.

NEW GLOBAL FM MEMBER: MEFMA

Global FM is pleased to announce that the Middle East Facility Management Association is the latest member to join the expanding federation.

"Engaging with professionals and governments across not just the Middle East but on a global level is crucial, that is why our membership of Global FM has been the most important announcement MEFMA has taken so far in 2011," announced MEFMA President Jamal Lootah.

"Collaboration and understanding of regions through transparent dialogue with international facilities management associations is vital to MEFMA's development and objectives for the FM industry in the Middle East. Global FM is the association for facilities management associations worldwide and MEFMA is very proud to announce its membership of this organization—further strengthening our communication and network with the likes of IFMA, BIFM, FMA Australia and many more."

MEFMA is a professional body aimed at unifying the facilities management industry in the Middle East region. It is a nonprofit association dedicated to promoting excellence in the management of facilities through a professional body. The association conducts research, provides educational programs and assists corporate and organizational facilities managers in developing strategies to manage human, facility and real estate resources within their country. MEFMA also develops products and services to assist the future of facilities management in the Middle East.

Global FM Chairperson Teena Shouse stated, “We are very excited and pleased that MEFMA has joined Global FM. This relationship is yet another sign of the importance of facilities management professionals combining their talents and energies to push the discipline to a new horizon. I believe that MEFMA will offer valuable and diverse expertise to Global FM and that the Global FM members will contribute positively to the future growth and development of MEFMA. We welcome MEFMA and challenge them to work with Global FM to fulfill our goal of promoting the strategic value and progress of the facilities management profession.”

During World FM Day, we aim at raising the FM's profile around the globe - promoting facilities management's ideals worldwide, not only within the profession and industry, but also among the governments and general public.
